ISSUES BEFORE THE JUDGES

Compromise Effected in the Receivership Suit of Milligan Against Rand.

Decree in the United States Court Settling the Claims Against the Old First National Bank-Other Matters of law.

A decree from Judge Woods, of the United States Court, was entered yesterday in the suit of Lippincott against the Shaw Carriage Company, which grew out of the litigation in the Superior Court of this county between Harry J. Milligan, receiver of the First National Bank, No. 55, and Frederick Rand, receiver of the Indiana Banking Company. It was shown to Judge Woods that Receiver Rand had recently written to receiver Milligan as follows:

"For the purpose of compromising all mat-ters between the Indiana Banking Company, myself, as receiver thereof, and its several partners, and the bank of which you are reseiver, its stockholders and its creditors, I make the following proposition, viz.: That you may take judgment against me on your intervening petition against me as receiver of the Indiana Banking Company for twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), as a preferred claim, and I will at once pay the sum, but out of that sum you must pay your receiver's certificate or note for $6,322.38 to S. A. Fietcher & Co., and which I now hold. I will also assign to you the tax certificates I hold in the Shaw Carriage Company's property. You are to obtain the consent of your court to this settlement, and I the consent of my court to said settlement."

The decree allows an acceptance of this com-promise, which shall be in full settlement and satisfaction of all matters and things between the litigants. In connection with this proposi-tion Alex. B. Conduitt, Joseph P. Shipp and John M. Gaston, committee for the stockholders of the First National Bank, No. 55, reported that on the 26th of May its successor, the First National, No. 2556, through its president and cashier, proposed to accept for its claim against its predecessor $30,000 in addition to the $15,000 heretofore paid through sale of assets by Harry J. Milligan, receiver. This amount the bank would accept in full payment, satisfac-tion and discharge of any and all claims held by it against the re-server and stockholders of the First National No. 55. Judge Woods ordered the acceptance osition by Receiver Milligan, whom he directed to apply all the cash now in or that may come into his hands up to and including the 31st of May. To raise funds necessary to carry out this settlement the receiver was ordered to issue on the 31st of May receiver's certificates for sums sufficient to pay and discharge balance of said claim of the First National Bank, No. 2556. The certificates bearing interest at 6 per cent. are to be payable on the 1st day of August, 1888.

It was further ordered that all property, real and personal, and all credits and choses in action, including all causes of action against the stockholders of said bank No. 55, and all rights of assessment upon the stockholders shall be retained by the receiver to secure payment, first, of the receiver's certificates including that heretofore issued to the Bank of Commerce, and second, of the liabilities in general of said bank including expenses of receivership. The refiled to the report of the master in chancery upon intervening petition of the First National Bank, No. 2556.

The committee reported other minor features of adjustment which the court ordered to be acsepted and then instructed the receiver to enforce payment by suit, or otherwise, of claims against S. W. Elliott, the estate of Thomas M. Sullivan, M. M. Finch, Sarah T. Morrison, Mattie McLane and D. W. Noble. In conelusion it was ordered that parties who held stock in said bank No. 55 at the time of liquidation, excepting receiver and members of the Indiana Banking Company and the estate of W. C. DePauw, shall be released and discharged from any and all liability of any kind growing out of their ownership of stock, whenever they shall pay into the registry of the United States Court, or to the receiver, a sum squal to 60 per cent. of the full or par value of the stock held by each of them. This payment has to be made by July 1, 1888, and moneys here-tofore paid to the trustee are to be deemed and treated as a release and discharge in case the moneys so in the hands of the trustee shall be paid out by him as ordered by court upon lia-bilities of said bank and expenses of the receiv-

Yesterday, upon the payment of $25,000 by Receiver Rand to Receiver Milligan, the latter's suit against the former was settled in Superior Court No. 2. Receiver Rand is also taxed with sosts of suit, which, with the $25,000, are to be paid out of the assets of the Indiana Banking Counterfeiters Sentenced. William Bain and Amos Walker, the two sounterfeiters arrested in the northern part of the State last week, appeared before Judge Woods, yesterday, and pleaded guilty, Bain to the charge of manufacturing and Walker to the pharge of passing, counterfeit money. Bain was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, and to pay a fine of $100 and costs; but Walker, on account of his youth, and the fact that his offense was not so serious, was let off with four months in the Hendricks county jail, and a fine of $25 and costs. REVIVING FOND MEMORIES.

The Graduates of the Western Female Seminary Have a Pleasant Reunion.

The annual meeting of the Indiana branch of the Western Female Seminary Association met yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Norris, No. 262 Lincoln avenue. These all-day reunions are very pleasant affairs. They will be held hereafter on the third Friday in May, each year, and it is hoped that all former pupils in the State will attend. Due notice will be given in the city papers of the place. Letters were read from absent friends, and an original poem was recited by Mrs. Lodge. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. King: vice-presidents, Mrs. Lodge, Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Norris; recording secretary, Mrs. Shultz; secretary and treasurer, Miss Bettie Wishard. Delegates to the alumnæ meeting at Oxford, O., June 15, 1888, are Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Vance, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Powell, Miss Jones. The ladies gave a vote of thanks to Mrs. Norris for her hospitality. Funds for the Monument.

Chairman Langsdale, of the Soldiers' Monument Commission, has sent a circular to the boards of commissioners of those counties which have not yet made an appropiaion to the monument fund. sented before two good audiences, both yester-day matines and last night. The specialties by local talent took well, especially the Last Picnic Party, with their songs. The young ladies of the party are slightly nervous, due, doubt-less, to this being their first appearance before the public, but they have all the attractiveness of any of our more popular soubrettes, and only need a little time to bring it out. Some few changes have been made in the stage settings which improve the play, and all through it runs much smoother than when first played.

one hundred were in attendance.

His Liabilities Are Several Thousand Dollars in Excess of the Assets in Stock.

D. J. Sullivan, the dry goods dealer, who has been recognized as one of the most enterprising merchants in the city during the last few years, yesterday afternoon made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. The failure created the greatest surprise, as Mr. Sullivan was considered to be in a good business condition, and, indeed, he maintains that it was due to the persistency of a few creditors whose claims he could not meet, although his assets will be $25,000 in excess of his liabilities. "I will pay 25 cents on the dollar," said he, "and I expect to be able to continue business after this affair is settled up.

In fact, the assignment is only temporary." Mr. Sullivan was for many years con-nected with the house of Mr. M. H.

nected with the house of Mr. M. H. Spades, but a few years ago started up for himself, with an establishment on Illinois street. He readily obtained a large custom, and about fifteen months ago moved to his present location, 6 and 8 West Washington street.

The assignee is Henry N. Spaan. The liabilities are given as $50,000, and the assets $75,000. The Meridian National Bank is the largest creditor, in the sum of $10,000, but is secured by a chattel mortgage. Among the heaviest Eastern creditors is the Jaffray Dry Goods Company, of New York. Mr. Sullivan's wife and Mr. M. K. New York. Mr. Sullivan's wife and Mr. M. K. Stock are among the local creditors.

AFFAIRS OF THE RAILWAYS.

The Huntington Contempt Case. Louisville, May 31.—In the Law and Equity Court, to-day, Marshal Montz returned the order of attachment issued Monday night against C. P. Huutington, with the indersement "not found." Mr. Huntington is represented in court by Col. Bullitt and Mr. Temple Bealy. Major Sanders was present, and was repreesnted by Judge Buckper. The latter, after conferring with Major Sanders, entered the following motions in writing.

In the case of Sanders against the Short-route Railway Transfer Company, the plaintiff moves the court to issue an alias attachment in this action against C. P. Huntington, returnable at some future day to be named by the court. The plaintiff moves the court to strike from the files the answer purporting to be an answer of the Short-route Railway Transfer Company filed by Charles R. Long, claiming to be vice-president of the Short-route Railway Transfer Company. The plaintiff moves the court to issue a rule against C. R. Long requiring him to appear in this court on a day to be named by the court, to show cause, if any he can, why he shall not be punished for contempt in filing an answer in the name of the Short-route Railway Transfer Company, when the said company was in disobedience of the injunctions which were issued herein on May 12, 1888, and May 26, 1888. The plaintiff moves the court to sequestrate the property of the defendants, the Short-route Railway Transfer Company, and C. P. Huntington, and to place the same in the hands of a receiver.

Judge Toney at once ordered the alias at tachment, to issue returnable one week from to-morrow. A bond of $5,000 will be required for Mr. Long's appearance at that time, or as soon as the papers are served. The other motions went over antil to-morrow afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, for argument. Mr. Huntington's attorney filed an affidavit seeking to remove Judge Toney from hearing the case. This will be argued at 3:30 P. M. to-morrow. Judge Toney was disinclined to listen to this lat Sr argument until the contempt attachment had been answered. The company is removing its offices to Louisville, in compliance with the injunction of May 12.

Personal, Local and State Notes. General Manager Green, of the C., L., St. L. & C., spent yesterday in the city. He is making a trip over the road. The Chicago & Eastern Illinois people claim land, O., goes into operation to-day. H. W. Davis, formerly an employee of the Bee-line, has been appointed chief inspector. J. E. Hannegan, secretary of the Western Association of General Ticket and Passenger Agents, has called the semi-annual meeting in Chicago, on June 13, at 11 o'clock A. M. It is feared that the new Western association for the better maintenance of rates is to be a short-lived affair, as some of the roads are not represented, and no one has authority to enforce Two of the Wabash trains, under the new time-table, bring passengers in here from Ft.

Missouri offices. Agents of the C., l., St. L. & C. road are now paid on the percentage basis. The more tickets they sell the more money they get, and, as a re-sult, very few persons board one of their trains without a ticket.

John Francis, assistant general ticket and passenger agent of the Burlington & Missouri road, is named as the probable successor of Pa S. Eustis, general passenger agent, appointed to a similar position on the C., B. & Q.

Geo. Roberts, president, and several others of the higher officials of the Pennsylvania Lines, have been inspecting a portion of the system this week. None of them had heard that there was to be a reduction of 5,000 men on their Reports of earnings for May grow more and

The American Express Company yesterday got out of the old Union Depot, and their lower office is now on South Meridian street, two doors North of Louisiana street. When the new depot is completed, probably some arrangement will be made by which the express companies can handle their business.

George F. Baer, one of the directors of the South Penn road, is quoted as saying that the road will be so far advanced within eighteen months as to be opened for business. He talked the same way some two years ago, when the prospects that it would be built were more promising than at the present writing.

The Journal has excellent authority for stating that the Cincinnati, Wabash & Michigan is yet likely to pass under control of what is known as the Ives syndicate. He has been given an option until Sept. 1. Work was begun on the Rushville extension last week, so as to hold the subsidies voted, but it has been abandoned. awaiting the outcome of the Ives deal.

In the Railroad Gazette of the 26th appears well-written article on the filling of trestles. by E. A. Hill, chief engineer of the Indianspo-lis, Decatur & Western road. Mr. Hill gives the expense of filling Nichol's Hollow, where there was a trestle 450 feet long and 67 feet high. Up to the present time 21,000 cubic yards of earth, or 2,612 car-loads, have been dumped in, at a cost for labor, repairs and supplies of 59f cents a car, or 7f cents a cubic yard. The trestle near Decatur was filled at a cost of 474 cents a car-load, or 6 cents a cubic yard.

Miscellaneous Items. The Colorado short line of the Missouri Paific is now open to Pueblo. President Stickeney is still agitating the fur-therance of his project for a line between St.

Paul and Superior City. It is stated that for the first five months of this year the earnings of the Lake Shore road are close up to those of 1887, and greater than in any previous year except 1880, the banner year with that road. Work commences next week on a road be-tween Frankfort and Georgetown, Ky., which will connect the Louisville & Nashville and the Cincinnati Southern. Townships through which the road is to pass have subscribed $750,000 to aid the enterprise. It is certainly creditable to the financial ability of Austin Corbin, president, and an evidence of the intrinsic worth of the Philadelphia & Reading property, that $40,000,000 of the company's bonds, a portion of which were merely on-cumulative incomes, should sell as well as they have done, and to notoriously careful capi-

The system of new tracks proposed aggregates twenty miles, and the new piers to be constructed will have a frontage of several thousand feet on the lake.

The Chicago freight bureau still insists that the local rate to St. Paul shall be advanced or the through rate reduced by the Burlington & Northern in connection with the lakes and the Central Vermont. Unless some compromise is soon reached the freight bureau will not only boycott the road but enter suit against it for violation of the interstate law.

DAILY, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY.

The Most Complete Newspaper in all Departments in the State of Indiana.

No newspaper in the West is more widely or more favorably known than the Indianapolis Journal. By the display of enterprise and strict attention to the wants of the reading public, it has taken a leading position among the most prominent journals of the country, and is certainly among the best. Among the newspapers of the State it is pre-eminently the best, and Indiana readers can nowhere else find what they want in the way of State and local news. It circulates largely in every county in Indiana, and has correspondents in every town and village of impor tance. Its market reports are prepared with the greatest care possible, and no pains or expense are spared to make them accurate and absolutely reliable. It is the only newspaper in the State owning and publishing all the news furnished by the two great press associations (the Western Associated Press and the United Press), in addition to which it furnishes an abundance of special service from all the principal cities of the country. It has been, and will in future be, the aim of the publishers to make the INDIAN-APOLIS JOURNAL a perfect and complete newspaper, deficient in no department or particular. The paper challenges comparison with any of its contemporaries. The approach of the great campaign of 1888 renders it desirable for every citizen to have a first-class newspaper; in fact, it will be impossible for him to keep fairly abreast of the times without such a paper. Great political battles are to be fought in the State and Nation, and their conduct and progress the Jour-NAL will carefully record. No Indiana reader, cer tainly no Indiana Republican, should be without the JOURNAL in the coming campaign. While it is thoroughly and soundly Republican in politics, devoted to the interest of the Republican party, the JOURNAL will not allow its news to be colored by partisan bias, but will give the news of the day without fear or favor. The present session of the national Congress will be among the most important held in recent years, and questions of great national moment will be considered. Every citizen is interested in the pending legislation, and can keep himself thoroughly posted by a perusal of the JOURNAL'S news columns, in which the doings of Congress will be fully reported.

In addition to its news features the JOURNAL regales its readers with the productions of some of the best known literary men and women of the day. Many of the most celebrated magazine writers and authors are contributors to its literary columns, making it a paper for the household and home circle. Special arrangements have been made for features of this character, which will appear in the JOURNAL during the coming year. These appear most largely in the SUNDAY JOURNAL, which is a special edition, and can be subscribed for and received exclusive of the DAILY

(THE WEEKLY EDITION).

One Dollar per year, has a circulation extending to every county in Indiana and adjacent territory. It is a complete compendium of the news of the week, ac companied by the latest market reports and special departments devoted to agricultural, horticultural and household topics. It is complete in every depart
